Name of Project	Financial Inclusion Advice for Parents
Target Group	Parents/kinship carers of child/children under 16 years in one of the target groups
Summary
A joint project, covering the whole city, delivered by GEMAP and Money Matters. Offering Type 2 and above financial support to parents who are struggling financially and require more support with their finances than the FFKW/employability Project they are engaged with are qualified to offer. The project will take direct referrals from employability projects with eligible parents and from any PESF Project. Support is given with the intention that these parents will then be able to consider employment as an option to help with their financial situation, once the most pressing issues of financial assistance have been dealt with. Support is flexible and advice is given at a location which suits the parent.

Name of Project	All In Glasgow – Progress for Parents
Target Group	Unemployed disabled parents
Summary
This project is intended to reach and engage with unemployed disabled parents who are not currently engaged with employability services, to allow them to gain support and begin to think about employment as a potential pathway. The project is delivered in partnership with providers already established in employability in Glasgow as well as a couple of smaller providers, to allow the reach to be as wide as possible. This project will allow assessment of the type of engagement that works well for this very marginalised group of parents, as well as the types of support required to help them to progress.

Name of Project	First Steps to Childcare
Target Group	Parents/kinship carers of child/children under 16 years in one of the target groups
Summary
The 1st Steps to Childcare course is to upskill and train parents to a level where they are work ready and have the appropriate skill set, knowledge and a work-based qualification which will allow them the opportunity to apply for either a Support Practitioner/Support Worker/Nursery Assistant, or a Child Development Officer (CDO) position within an Early Learning and Childcare (ELC) setting. Candidates are recruited via ELC and partnership settings, with referrals made by Head Teachers and Management Team. Referrals are all linked in with Glasgow Life Family Finances Key Workers (FFKW). Training starts with a 6-month introductory course at college, with a day a week volunteering placement in an ELC/Partnership nursery, followed by a year-long course with a Training Provider (Experiential Play) to gain SVQ Level 2 Social Services (Children and Young People). If the candidate wishes to progress further, they can then study for a further year to gain SVQ Level 3 Social Services (Children and Young People).

Name of Project	Glasgow Ethnic Minority Support (GEMS)
Target Group	All ages minority ethnic communities across the city of Glasgow. The target groups include migrants, women, and disabled people from a minority ethnic background or English as a second language.
Summary
The intersectional barriers and challenges faced by minority ethnic communities accessing employment are institutional racism and lack of opportunity, role models, multicultural understanding among employers, understanding of how to access opportunities, the value of relevant skills and experience, and resources for starting employment. These challenges will be addressed by GEMS partners through a balance of coaching, learning, and practical support, resulting in increased confidence, knowledge, choice, empowerment, and a move towards upskilling or aligning existing skills. It will include 1-1 discussions to identify existing skills/experience and aspirations. This will include the following options, where required: skills profiling, CV building, workshops, Women’s Empowerment, meet the employer Q&amp;A sessions, job application support including access to digital resources, interview skills, mock interviews, job searches, volunteering and/or work placement opportunities, and goal setting. Additionally, GEMS will develop a network of employer partners within sectors that can provide sustained employment. We will work with employers to support diversity in recruitment and staff retention, plus how to tackle racism. The consortium partners have specialisms in Healthcare, Social Care, Doctors, Computing, Trades, Childcare, Hair &amp; Beauty, Fashion &amp; Textiles, and Business. The project is a consortium with Bridges Programmes, Amina, Cranhill Development Trust, Govanhill Community Development, the Community Renewal Trust, and Glasgow Clyde College.

Name of Project	Glasgow Code Learning
Target Group	All ages
Summary
Digital skills can help individuals secure a well-paid career with long-term security; however, training is often costly. The Glasgow Code Learning (GCL) programme provides an accelerated route for those who wish to gain entry-level employment in the Digital Technologies sector, by offering opportunities to build expertise or reskill and transition into alternative employment. GCL uses an incremental progression model to build skills and experience over three levels of accredited digital skills courses. Designed to suit the young person’s existing skills and aspirations, levels range from the very basics required for work, to top level digital skills courses in Web Design, Cyber Security and Software Development, for example. GCL is delivered in partnership with Glasgow Clyde College. All courses are delivered flexibly as a blend of face to face and online provision so that participants can fit their studies around their other commitments. GCL participants benefit from a community of supportive tutors, access to laptops, software and connectivity, 1-1 support sessions and guidance on starting a career in the Digital Technologies sector. Those enrolling for intermediate and top level GCL courses, also receive a Clyde College student card and have access to the facilities at all three of Clyde College’s campuses.

Name of Project	All in Glasgow – Training for Work
Target Group	All age service with a focus on 16 – 24 year olds
Summary
The Training for Work service was formed exclusively to provide high-quality support to Glasgow residents to cover all client barriers and industry sectors, ensuring seamless delivery. Combining Glasgow's third sector, enhancing co-production, and removing competition makes this offer unique. The target group comprises individuals aged 16 to pensionable age, including those who are at risk of redundancy. We anticipate that our clients will face a diverse range of challenges and barriers that they face. Our target groups will include individuals who are disengaged from education or mainstream services, those with disabilities and mental health conditions, individuals with caring responsibilities, those impacted by poverty, and individuals from areas of significant deprivation. They may experience various social and emotional barriers, such as loneliness, depression, homelessness, poverty, offending behaviours, and substance abuse. The partnership led by ENABLE, acts as the single point of contact for individuals. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The ENABLE Breaking Barriers programme in partnership with Strathclyde University, Scottish Power, STV, Balfour Beatty, and Diageo, offers disabled people the opportunity to attend a leading university, gain a qualification in Business Admin, Science or Engineering and complete on-the job training with some of Glasgow's top employers. In addition, we will deliver our highly successful ENABLE Works Care Academy to a wide range of clients, producing multiple sector-specific qualifications and delivering guaranteed interviews and jobs.</li> <li>• Action for Children will deliver their industry-leading qualifications in construction, customer service, and hospitality targeting the most disadvantaged young people in the city from locations in the city centre, Ibrox and Bridgeton.</li> <li>• Apex, who are Scotland's leading criminal conviction and addictions specialist will deliver their "Clean to Change" and "Build It" academies in conjunction with the new HMP Barlinnie site, both of which provide pathways into work for clients with criminal convictions.</li> </ul>

- Barnardo's will deliver their industry-leading qualifications in construction, digital skills, health & social care, and customer service to care experienced young people from their city centre offices and throughout the community.
- FARE, based at Glasgow Fort, has an exciting and exclusive relationship with all Fort employers. In addition, they also have their own Nursey and will use these venues to deliver their leading qualifications in customer service, retail, and early years.
- First Steps Future Training, based at Bridgeton is an exclusive construction provider, delivering high-quality support for anyone wishing to explore the world of construction. They deliver a wide variety of construction qualifications and on-the-job training.
- Generation is a new and exciting provider to the city that offers high-calibre digital skills qualifications. They will deliver bootcamps in AWS Cloud Computing and Retrofit Advisor to support people from disadvantaged and underrepresented groups. In line with the type of qualifications, delivery will be a hybrid offer of in person and online training from the city centre.
- Hi People are a customer service, transport/logistics and hospitality provider who deliver industry leading qualifications to disadvantaged people. Operating from their purpose built "Confidence Café" in Central Station and in partnership with Scotrail.
- Prince's Trust, who are based in the city centre at their well-established Wolfson Centre, will deliver support to people with multiple barriers, who are furthest from the labour market and most affected by poverty/inequality. This includes young people with a disability or mental health issue; and those leaving the care system. Their "Get Into" programmes will deliver sector specific qualifications across a range of sectors including transport, hair and beauty, digital, customer service, early years, and health and social care.
- Street League has an innovative offer that engages young people through the power of sport. They utilise local sporting venues in all areas across Glasgow including Goals on Pollockshaws Road covering South Glasgow, Soccer World on Croftcroighn Road covering East Glasgow, Firhill Sports Complex covering North Glasgow and Scotstoun Leisure Centre covering West Glasgow. They deliver health and wellbeing improvement through sports alongside qualifications in customer service.
- SWAMP, who have a purpose built venue in Pollock, is a forward-thinking Community Development, using accredited training, outreach, film, music, digital technologies, gardening, and the creative arts to ENABLE Works and empower social change to engage, retain, and progress some of the hardest to reach young people.

- Wheatley Foundation has accessible hubs across the city and will deliver its accredited employability programmes in customer service and health and social care. In addition, they will deliver their accredited “environmental roots” programme, which offers clients qualifications and work experience in the environmental/housing sector and act as a referral source through their engagement with tenants across their 48,000 homes in Glasgow. Wheatley Foundation also brings its network of local employers through its new build development programmes, contracts, and services along with its Wheatley Pledge employer incentive to help support SME’s to create new job opportunities.
