Hi [REDACTED]

I've just had the attached email back from Licensing.

Permission to use the centre has now been withdrawn.

As such, there is nothing for Licensing to consider and Monday's meeting will now be cancelled.

I don't see anything in the email that indicates the reason for the decision to withdraw, although Cllr [REDACTED] and the local community council both objected to Licensing about the application. I guess the same complaints were lodged with Glasgow Life.

Regards,

Ahh okay.

So nothing we can say – what's your stock line on that front?

Thanks,

H [REDACTED]

Unfortunately, not – an application for a TPEL for Ibrox Football Centre is to be considered by the Licensing Committee on Monday next week.

See link to the committee pages for further details.

I'm wondering if this application is competent given there is no permission to use the space. I'll check with Licensing and let you know.

Cheers,

Hi all,

As I understand it, there isn't an application in to licensing – as we've not given approval for the use of the facility. Is that you're understanding [REDACTED]?

If that is the case, then I will work up fresh line. Just had an update on this one.

Thanks,

[REDACTED]

Hi [redacted]

Like I said the other day, I'm not across this one. My colleagues from Council will keep me right, but if something is subject to licence application, then we're restricted on what we can say until decision is made.

Copying in my colleague [redacted] too, who has been working on this.

Thanks,

[redacted]

Hi [redacted]

[redacted]

Rangers are now applying to Glasgow City Council for a temporary entertainment licence. Has Glasgow Life changed its stance on this? Are talks ongoing?

Thanks
